

Charter for the MCC Advisory Council

Committee's Official Designation

MCC Advisory Council ("The Council")

Authority

The Council is established under agency authority pursuant to and in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA), as amended.

Objectives and Scope of Activities

The Council shall serve MCC in a solely advisory capacity and provide insight regarding i) innovations in relevant sectors including technology, infrastructure and blended finance; ii) perceived risks and opportunities in MCC partner countries; and iii) evolving approaches to working developing country contexts. The Council will provide a platform for systematic engagement with the private sector and contribute to MCC's mission – to reduce poverty through sustainable economic growth.

MCC will use the advice, recommendations, and guidance from the Council to i) inform MCC's compact development and implementation process and ii) broaden and deepen public and private sector partnerships for more impact and leverage.

Description of Duties

The Council will provide advice to MCC on issues including:

1. Innovative, scalable and sustainable market-based approaches to economic growth.
2. Effective and efficient use of technology, and commercially viable development solutions.
3. Leveraging private investment and partnerships to advance development objectives in compact countries.
4. Perceived private sector risks and opportunities in MCC partner countries.
5. Project development and implementation challenges and opportunities; particularly where public

- and private resources can be effectively deployed to achieve sustainable development outcomes.
6. Policy, institutional and regulatory reforms necessary to enable private sector growth in MCC partner countries.
 7. Areas of new opportunity for MCC, including maximizing the impact of regional investment authority

The duties of the Council are solely advisory and any determinations to be made or actions to be taken on the basis of Council advice shall be made or taken by appropriate officers of MCC.

Agency or Official to Whom Council Reports

The Council will report to the Vice President of the Department of Compact Operations.

Support

The Department of Compact Operations will provide administrative support for the Council.
